

String of Diamonds Runner

Finished size: 9" x 54"

The diamonds in this simple skinny runner showcase large or medium sized prints.

The diamond in a square units are 6" square finished and are attractively framed by 1-1/2" sashing.

Note: If the runner is finished with a bound edge the runner's finished dimensions will be 9.5" x 54.5".

Fabric requirements

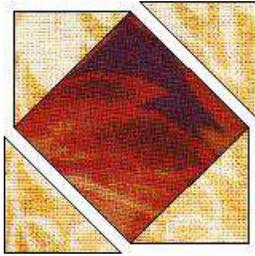

(Does not include backing or binding)

Fabric	Yardage
A	1/4 yard
B	1/4 yard
C	1/4 yard
D	1/8 yard

Cutting Directions

Patch	1 st cut	2 nd cut
A	7 4-3/4" squares
B	14 3-7/8" squares	Cut diagonally into 28 HSTs
C	22 2" x 6 1/2"
D	16 2" squares

Assembly

Diamond in a square unit (Make 7)

Sew 2 B triangles to opposite sides of an A square.

Sew 2 more B triangles to remaining sides of the A square.

Sew one C rectangle to each side of diamond in a square unit To make Unit 1.

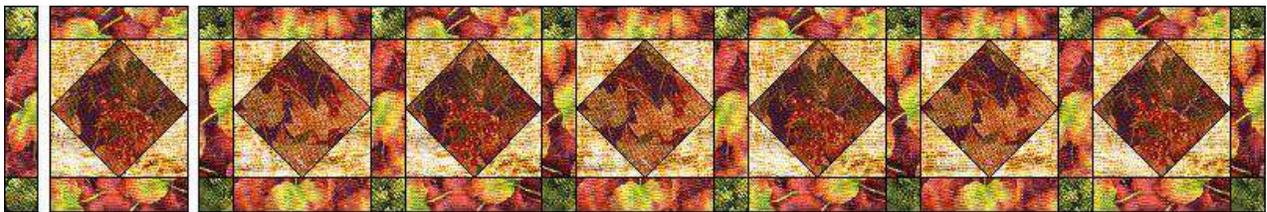

Repeat for 6 remaining diamond in a square units.

Sew one D square to each end of a C rectangle to make Unit 2.

Repeat for 7 remaining C pieces.

Sew Units 2 to Units 1 as shown below.

Piece fabric to make a 9.5" x 54.5" backing. Layer a 9.5" x 54.5" piece of batting, then the backing, right side up. Layer the top right side down on the backing. Sew around all the sides, leaving a 4" opening to turn the runner right side out. Turn right side out and hand stitch the opening closed. Quilt runner as desired.